

Dedicated to Miss Elizabeth R. Goodwin

NEATH THE SHADE OF THE MAPLE TREE

·SONG·

Words by

MRS. GEORGE H. GORDON

Music by

HENRY D. DUMAD

Musgrave Bros.
Music Publishers, Importers and Dealers
Yonge St. Arcade TORONTO

'Neath the Shade of the Maple Tree

Words by Mrs. G. H. GORDON.

Music by Henry D. DUMAD.

Moderato.

p

I am stand - ing a - lone in the
When the roar of the can - on is

mf

p

moon - light, In the shade of the Ma - ple tree, And I'm think - ing to - night of you, dear, When you si - lent And you come from a - cross the sea, You will find that I still am wait - ing, 'Neath the said "Good - bye" to me, And I know that the same moon's shin - ing, Ov - er you where - er you shade of the Ma - ple tree, I will smile as I hear you tell - ing, How you oft - en dreamed of

be,
me, But you are a long, long way, dear, From the shade of the Ma - ple tree.
And the same old moon will shine, dear, As we sit 'neath the Ma - ple tree.

REFRAIN.

Tempo di Valse.

'Neath the shade of the Ma - ple tree, _____ Where you said "Good - bye" to me, _____

_____ And al - tho' you're far a - way, _____ I'll be true to you each day, _____ 'Neath the shade of the Ma - ple tree, _____ Where you said "Good - bye" to me, _____ I'll be true to you each day, _____ 'Till we meet 'neath the Ma - ple tree. _____ 'Neath the tree. _____

82923